

Sustainability continues to be at the forefront of Atlantis Headwear's design philosophy.

Several bestsellers will now be available in a new preferred materials versions, maintaining the quality and style loved by many while reducing their environmental impact: look for the “-S” next to the item names to find our iconic models with a new impact!

This commitment to more responsible production is now also reflected in our new certifications: GRS (Global Recycled Standard) and GOTS (Global Organic Textile Standard), ensuring that products meet high environmental and social criteria.
