wearsustainable

The combination of Fairtrade-certified and organic cotton is the best possible solution to improve social sustainability and protect the environment in the growing countries.

Strict standards apply to the production of organic cotton:

- Seeds without gene technology

Only traditional seeds are used in the cultivation of organic cotton, genetically modified plants are prohibited.

- Low artificial irrigation

Organic cotton also needs water - although the water consumption is lower than for conventional crops. The majority of the water organic cotton needs is covered by rainwater and moisture stored in the soil.

- Without pesticides

Only natural methods are used for fertilisation and plant protection methods are used instead of synthetic chemical agents.

- Handpicked

The elimination of machinery and defoliants protects the health of the farmers and the fertility of the soil is preserved.

The Fairtrade product label for cotton stands for fairly grown and traded raw cotton that is directly traceable through all production steps and is processed separately from non-Fairtrade cotton.

All the cotton for the printwear® articles is grown by Fairtrade producers, certified and traded according to Fairtrade standards. Fairtrade promotes better working and living conditions for cotton producers as well as environmental protection.

OEKO-TEX

Textiles of all kinds that have been tested for harmful substances, from yarn to the finished article, may carry the STANDARD 100 product label. My pure mate has been awarded the STANDARD 100 label.

RECYCLED MATERIAL

A blended fabric of cotton and polyester that was 100% recycled. Recycling old cotton fabrics and plastics saves resources and reduces waste. The result is cotton and polyester fibers that have been combined in a collection for printwear®. Using the bags for as long as possible, is even more environmentally friendly than recycling. The prerequisite is provided by printwear®: Basics in classic colors and good quality.
